

Setting up PayPal for Public Education Class Payments

Just set up your PayPal account as if you were an individual, not a business. It's much simpler that way. You'll have to be a little creative with the first name and last name. I think our first name is something like USCGAux and our last name is ElevenOne.

You'll need to link the PayPal account to the flotilla's bank account and also to an email address. When someone sends your flotilla money they'll send it to the email address you have created. The money accumulates in the PayPal account until you go in and select Transfer Funds to move it to the bank account.

There is a small transaction fee ($1.46) but it isn't nearly as bad as if you try to set it up as a business.
